Discussion session with presenters and audience integration on key points for Port-City Relationships

Valeria Mangiarotti
Marketing Manager ADSP "Autorità di Sistema Portuale del Mare di Sardegna
(Ports of Sardinia),
Port of Cagliari and MedCruise

BIOGRAPHY

Valeria started her professional career in Port of Cagliari in 2002 and first was a lawyer in legal office in Milan. She involved in the cruise industry in 2004. She holds a degree in law from the Catholic University of Milan Italy. she became a lawyer in 1992 in the Court of Appeal of Milan. She attended a master in common law at London school of economic London. UK.

She was a vice president of MEDCRUISE, the Association of the Mediterranean Cruise ports between 2005 and 2008. and she was in a board of MEDCRUISE like a director of environment from 2008- 2011. From 2013 she has a delegate for environment from MEDCRUISE. she represents Medcruise in ESPO.

She collaborated with The Maritime Economists (MEMag). It is a scientific magazine by IAME (International Association Maritime Economists), that is the owner and publisher see http://www.mar-economists.org/MEMag/index.htm). She wrote an article entitled "European Environmental Laws: Some Considerations for Mediterranean Cruise Ports published on The Maritime Economist"

She has participated in may international environmental conferences as speaker and in particular in the last Green Port events as delegated of Medcruise (2014-2015-2016).

She was speaker (7- 8 June 2017) at the event "European Environmental ports Conference 2017" in Antwerp.

Valeria is in charge of the port of Cagliari is marketing manager she is responsible for leading the marketing activities of the Port while giving support to the expansion of Port Authority.

From the 2013 she is a member of the board of the Bank of Italy.